MERRY BOWLERS HIKE TO DENVER

Fifty Alley Experts From All Over West Leave Salt Lake in Special Car.

A special car of merry bowlers left Salt Lake yesterday afternoon for Denver to attend the second annual meeting of the Western Bowling congress, which starts on Thursday and continues until next week. The car was made up of the pick of the bowling contingent of Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Butte and Salt Lake, in all about fifty experts with the ten pins, many of them taking their wives along.

Citizens walking along Third South yesterday morning probably wondered what had hit the town, when they saw a bunch of thirty strong-junged individuals piled into the Crown alleys and began to yell for Salt Lake. It was the Butte-Seattle-Portland contingent on the way to Denver and they had stopped off a part of a day to see if "good old Salt Lake" was still alive and prospering. Nearly all of them were here a year ago when Salt Lake held the tournament and they all remembered the good time they had while here.

In a few minutes it was noised around town among the local bowlers that the western gathering of the bowling fraternity held forth for the next hours at the crown alleys. The "He ho" of Brown and his bunch of Seattle Indians was soon resounding up and down the alleys, while the members of the Seattle Athletic club were busy knocking down pins.

Can't Saw Wood With a Hammer.

Seattle will spring a new one of the W. R. C. in the shape of a Seattle booster's phrase that is a winner. They remained in Salt Lake long enough yesterday to plaster the town with Seattle booster stickers which read "Mike Sheehan, wood with a hammer." Brown says he will also spring a new yell which will make the Denverites sit up and take notice. Mike Sheehan and his crowd of miners were also on deck from Butte. When asked about the strike Mike said: "Strike, why the only kind of strike we know anything about is the twelve straight kind that makes a 300 score. Butte is all right and we are going to show the other fellows." The Butte contingent were a big copper ten pin on their coat lapels. It is the nearest thing to bowling novelty seen here in many days.

The Portland crowd were a little more modest than their noisy Seattle brothers and contented themselves with wearing long ribbons with the single word Portland printed thereon. The crowd for the tournament for next year and it is believed will have Seattle with them.

Busy All the Time in Utah, Salt Lake.

"Busy all the time in Utah, Salt Lake," was the way the Salt Lake contingent of bowlers and bowlers, headed by the train for Denver, leaving Salt Lake, the Rio Grande gave the bowling crowd a special car.

The members of the various teams which left yesterday afternoon were: Seattle—All Seattle Stars, S. Shurman, A. Buxton, Frank Holland, Z. H. Crossman; Seattle Athletic Club, H. E. Brown, F. W. Gardner, N. B. Allen, James Wood, Joseph F. Morris, unattached, C. W. Davis, Portland—First team, C. H. Ball, J. H. Barbour, L. C. Keating, G. J. Kruse, C. L. De Monoy; Second team, A. B. Moore, W. B. Hanson, F. J. McMonies, Salt Lake—Bowler's Men's team, C. J. Zehring, A. W. Smith, J. W. Hanes, W. L. McLeod, Andrew Anderson; Crown team, A. R. Talamantes, S. T. Jack Quins, Sam Spitz, Ray Brewster; Jack Quins, attached, F. L. Whitney, Butte—M. J. Sheehan, T. J. Ellis, O. Taylor, Kirkpatrick, J. S. McKinley, A. W. Merkle, Tacoma—A. Pawloske.

With the party of bowlers were a number of others including the wives of several of the bowlers. It is just possible that Salt Lake will furnish a few more bowlers who will leave today. The bowlers are going over the Oregon Short Line.

DECISION ON BASEBALL.

Editor Salt Lake Herald:

To decide a ball please let us know through your columns, the answer to the following baseball game: In the second base running and the batter knocks the ball into the field between first and second. A strike is run and the runner on the diamond about fifteen feet from third base. The umpire's attention was directed to right field and he did not see the runner cut third base. Can a ball be called and also can his tally be counted.

Yours, A. SUBSCRIBER.

Price, Utah.

It is all up to the umpire. If he says the man is out, that settles it. It does not matter whether he saw the man cut third or not, neither does it matter whether the man did cut third or not. If the umpire says he did he is out. There is no rule saying the umpire must see the play, he merely passes judgment on the play and even if his back is turned and he declares the man cut the base, whether the runner did or not, he is out. It is a poor umpire that would not protect himself on a play of this kind and watch for such an action on the part of the runner. It would be a pity to see a runner when his decision was given, but what ever decision he does give goes and there is no power on earth to change it. If the man is not called out his tally is scored.

SANPETE BEATS PAYSON.

INDIAN MACANDREW DEPARTS.

David C. Macandrew, "Indian" of Utah baseball in several seasons, heard of a railroad accident in which he tried conclusions with a switch engine and broke both legs, football scrapper at Dartmouth and elsewhere, and later an employee of the Rio Grande Western at Bingham, left last night for San Francisco, where he will enter the Southern Pacific offices under E. B. Calvin.

CHAMPION DEFENDS TITLE.

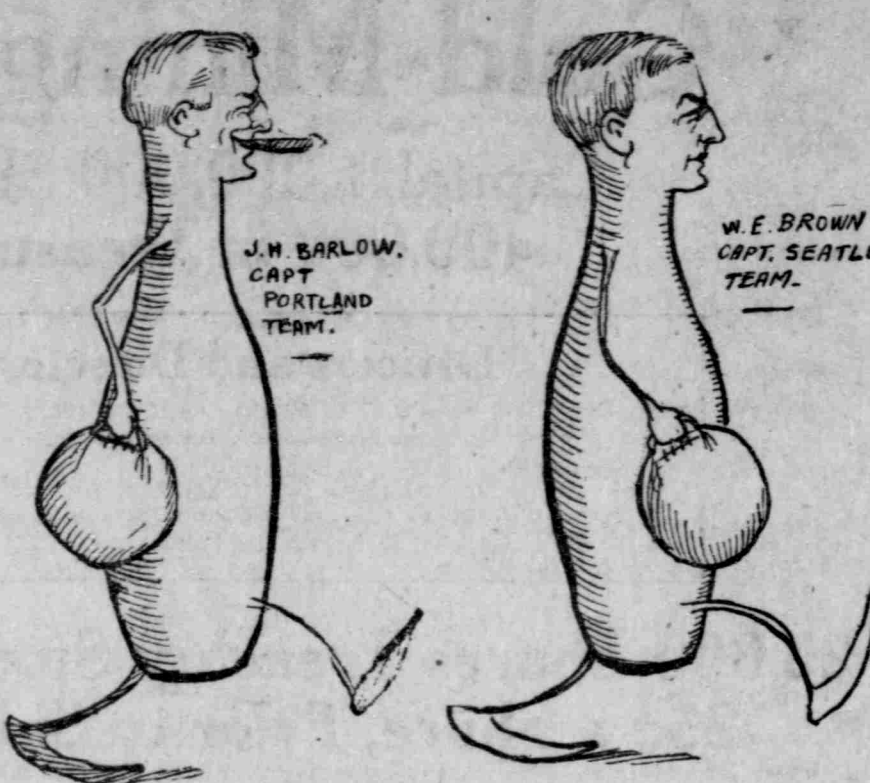

New York, March 5.—Edward Gardner of Passaic, N. J., holder of the title for the second year in the series for the amateur championship at 142 balk line billiards from Charles F. Conklin of Chicago, by one point. Score 20 to 20. He won in the forty-sixth inning.

RYAN AGREES TO MEET GANS.

Syracuse, N. Y., March 5.—Tommy Ryan, who last night fought Hugo Kelly at Rochester, said today that he would accept the offer of the Tonopah Athletic club of Tonopah, Nev., to fight Joe Gans for a purse of $20,000 on Labor Day, and will go into training as soon as the articles are signed.

WHITE SOX GO TO MEXICO.

Chicago, March 5.—In a special train decorated with flags and streamers, the Chicago team of the American league left today for the City of Mexico, where the spring training of the team will commence.

Off for Denver.

YESTERDAY'S TURF RESULTS.

At Oakland.

San Francisco, March 5.—The Gold Lute handicap at Emeryville today was simply a gallop for the favorite, Shotgun, the big horse winning with the greatest ease. Collector Jessup, the second choice, outgamed Hector for the place. Happy Rice, favorite in the mile and twenty yards race, made all the running, but had trouble in winning from the fast-coming Fairy Street. Results:

First race, four furlongs, selling, two-year-olds—Boas, 107; Scoville, 3 to 2 won; Valoski, 102; Dugan, 7 to 1 second; Jockey Mounce, 107; Williams, 8 to 1 third. Time—1:29.4-5. Gin Hee, Lake View, Bathmont, Warrior and Wayne also ran.

Second race, one mile and twenty yards, selling—Happy Rice, 101; Hunter, even; won; Duke of Orleans, 104; Sandy, 9 to 1 third. Time—1:45. Bogum, Alarie, Treasurer, Seeker, Heather, and George Kilburn also ran.

Third race, five and a half furlongs—Wool Sandals, 106; Koerner, 9 to 20 won; Sam Barber, 107; Bore, 3 to 1 second; Johnny Lyons, 108; Hayes, 15 to 1 third. Time—1:50.1-5. Derdum, Roy Bennett, Louise Fitzgibbon and Little Minister also ran.

Fourth race, five and a half furlongs, the Gold Lute handicap—Shot Gun, 130; Graham, 3 to 5 won; Collector Jessup, 114; Koerner, 7 to 2 second; Hector, 133; Dugan, 8 to 1 third. Time—1:50.1-5. Mansard also ran.

Fifth race, one mile and a sixteenth, selling—Andrew Mack, 108; Koerner, even; won; Mandator, 104; Coville, 16 to 5 second; The Eborian, 185; Smith, 6 to 1 third. Time—1:50.2-5. Graphite, Salable, Blue Eyes, Rightful also ran.

Sixth race, six furlongs—Martinsmas, 104; Davis, 16 to 1 won; Rapid Water, 111; Koerner, 9 to 20 second; Corn Blossom, 107; Sandy, 15 to 1 third. Time—1:28.1-5. Princess Titania, Curriculum and Gratorian also ran.

At Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, March 5.—Mud horses were the only ones that had any chance at Ascot today. One of the prettiest finishes seen for some time was in the first race when Chancery Walcott, Brennus and Revolt came down the stretch neck and neck and heads apart. Walcott only managed to win in the final jump.

Von Tromp made a runaway finish of the one mile handicap, being six lengths ahead in crossing the line. Results—Chancellor Walworth, 116; Kunz, 6 to 1 won; Brennus, 130; Builwell, 16 to 1 second; Revolt, 128; Davis, 2 to 1 third. Time—1:21.3-5. Woodthorpe, Hirtle, Colonel Bronston also ran.

Second race, mile and a sixteenth—Buttins, 112; McDaniel, 10 to 1 won; Capable, 112; Harris, 3 to 1 third. Time—1:32.

JIM WILLIAMS HAS KICK

Objects to Unknown Fighters Using His Name to Get a Reputation.

Jim Williams, the local policeman and former pugilist, who went down the line meeting such men as Tom Sharkey and other top-notchers, is warm under the collar. It is not often Jim gets warm; in fact, thousands in Salt Lake who know him can vouch for his mild-mannered disposition; but Jim objects to an unknown fighter coming to Salt Lake and trying to get a reputation by coupling his name with Jim's. In an effort to bolster up a reputation for Pete Sullivan, it is being circulated that Jim Williams is afraid to meet Mr. Sullivan. Before has been printed to the effect that Jim agreed to try Sullivan out and then got cold feet. This is what makes Jim sore. He said yesterday that he is an office and not a fighter and he would consider it as a favor if unknown pugilists would be careful about the manner in which they talked about him.

The Police Gazette Sporting Annual is pretty good dope to follow in matters referring to the prize ring. The same Pete Sullivan has been circulating a record of himself, in which he does not agree with this sporting annual. According to Sullivan's press agent he defeated both Martin Canole and Willie Fitzgerald. Although Sullivan has been in the ring for at least six years, his name does not appear in the dope book, except under the caption of "other fighters he has met." Canole's record gives him a victory over Sullivan in twelve rounds in 1901, and a knockout over Sullivan in five rounds in 1902. Fitzgerald's record shows the men meeting once, when Fitzgerald knocked Sullivan out in seven rounds last September.

This is the man Salt Lake is asked to believe is a match for Harry Lewis. To quote Denver paper:

"Lewis is in no hurry to meet Mike (Twin) Sullivan again, as he can make some easy money in the brush towns in the west."

Salt Lake apparently is one of the brush towns referred to.

FARMER BURNS WINS.

Omaha, Neb., March 5.—"Farmer" Burns won his catch-as-catch-can wrestling match with James Parr, champion of England, at the Auditorium tonight. Parr took the first bout in twenty-one minutes and Burns the second and third in thirteen and twenty-four minutes respectively.

NEW JOCKEY CLUB HEAD.

Covington, Ky., March 5.—At a meeting of the Latonia Jockey club here, Congressman Joseph E. Labrock was elected president to succeed Julius Fleischmann, and John Hachmeister of Louisville was elected treasurer and director.

BOULDER MAN TO SEND DOGS

Seventy-Five Entries Already in for Bench Show—Will Close Tonight.

But one more day remains in which dogs can be entered for next week's bench show. Last night Assistant Secretary May reported a total of seventy-five entries received up to date and said that indications pointed to the largest day's business today of any since he has taken charge of the work. A long string of dog fanciers were in and out of the Western Arms & Sporting Goods store yesterday, where the entries are being received. Entries which are in nearly every instance promised to be back today with an entry or two. This lead the directors to believe there will be at least 100 dogs entered by the time the entries close this evening.

Treasurer J. J. Morris yesterday received entry from Dr. E. C. Linderman of Boulder, which calls for three St. Bernard dogs. These dogs are entered in all the classes to which they are eligible and are thought to be three of the finest St. Bernards in the west. They were sired by Leo, one of the most famous St. Bernards that ever lived.

The many owners of field dogs in the city are somewhat alarmed over an entry received yesterday from County Treasurer B. Jensen of Nephi. He has a pointer which has a pedigree that is almost enough to make a dog fancier in any show. He comes from the famous Rip Rap stock on one side and the Jingo stock on the other. His strain is considered the best pointer blood in the country.

Lon Hyde has entered a pup of Prophet Joe, Mont Fisher's dog which swept the show at Denver. Hyde's dog is a good looking and many think will give his dad a run for first money.

The Ekimo Ski terrier entered by M. Fitzgerald of this city is a strong candidate for the Fred Wye prize for the most popular dog in the show. He is considered a beauty and it is believed will be popular with the women.

RACING WILL CONTINUE.

Oaklawn Jockey Club Finds Way to Evade Law.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 5.—Oaklawn racing will continue despite the "times" anti-pooling law, according to the position taken by the Oaklawn Jockey club. No bookmakers were in the established positions in the betting ring today, but anyone wanting a bet found little difficulty in placing his money with the hands of the jockey club's legal representatives claim that the law is defective.

Sherriff Smith again invaded the track today and arrested one bookmaker and one of his patrons, making a total of nine arrests in the past two days. He says he will continue to make arrests until the validity of the law is established. John Condon, principal owner of the track, arrived here today to confer with Dan Stuart and other officers of the club.

AMUSEMENTS

The sale of seats for the University Dramatic club engagement at the Theatre commences today.

One of the finest features of Mr. Savage's production of the Puccini grand opera, "Madame Butterfly," is the wealth of flowers used. In the first act Butterfly's little bamboo cottage is literally embowered in drooping wisteria, while all around grows the most beautiful of flora. In the second act when the little girl's wife prepares for the reception of her husband, profusion of sweet-scented blooms are strewn upon the matting until iris, cherry, peach and balsam petals cover the floor nearly a foot deep.

This week's bill at the Orpheum with its sketches, acrobatic work, juggling and all around grows the most beautiful of flora. In the second act when the little girl's wife prepares for the reception of her husband, profusion of sweet-scented blooms are strewn upon the matting until iris, cherry, peach and balsam petals cover the floor nearly a foot deep.

With a matinee and evening performance, the Japanese bookmaker and drama, "The Belle of Japan" closes its engagement at the Grand. Thursday evening, "Jerry From Kerry" comes to the Grand.

"The Counterfeiters" will be given twice today at the Lyric.

AGAINST CONSOLIDATION.

Alpine Votes Against Change in Boundaries of School Districts.

Provo, March 4.—The trustees of American Fork, Highland and Alpine districts met here about two weeks ago to consider the change of boundaries of their school districts, and it was then decided that Highland and Alpine would consolidate. The trustees of the two districts were to return and submit the decision to the voters of their respective districts and it was thought the voters would readily acquiesce. From reports of meetings sent to Superintendent Eggeston it seems that Trustee Healy, of Alpine, at the meeting in his district moved that a consolidation be not effected, and the motion was carried. The consolidation is therefore off for the present. It may result in the consolidation of the three districts of American Fork, Highland and Alpine.

The Telluride Power company has completed its temporary flume, which conveys enough water to generate power to about one-sixth of the capacity of the power generated before the flume was destroyed by the snowslide. The company will replace the flume destroyed by a permanent iron pipe as soon as possible.

GRANTVILLE HAPPENINGS.

Grantville, March 4.—Alvin McBride, a resident of Upton, Summit county, died at Grantville yesterday. From reports it appears that Mr. McBride had been suffering from consumption, but he was not considered in danger. During the past winter he had been caring for sheep in the vicinity of Grantville. The day before his death he called upon a friend and while spending the night he passed away. Mr. McBride leaves a wife and three small children.

Under the auspices of the school the art exhibit of the Horace K. Turner company, of Boston, was given here. The pictures and a large number of people accepted the rare opportunity to see them. It is indeed a choice collection and those who did not see them have missed something not to be seen every day.
